

Office of University Interdisciplinary Programs

"Rachel Carson's Legacy in North Carolina: Science Communication and Environmental Justice Advocacy"

3:30PM Wednesday September 20, 2023
Plant Sciences Building, Seminar rooms ABC
Centennial Campus

Robert K. Musil, Ph.D., M.P.H.

President and CEO of the Rachel Carson Council

Robert K. Musil, PhD, MPH is the President and CEO of the Rachel Carson Council, the legacy organization envisioned by Rachel Carson and founded in 1965 by her closest friends and colleagues. He is the founder of the Rachel Carson Council Campus Network of 65 U.S. colleges and universities with over 5,000 active faculty, student, staff and administration supporters. From 1992-2006, Dr. Musil was the longest-serving Executive Director and CEO of Physicians for Social Responsibility (PSR), winner of the 1985 Nobel Prize for Peace. He is a graduate of Yale and Northwestern Universities and the Johns Hopkins School of Public Health. Dr. Musil is also a Senior Fellow and Adjunct Professor at the Center for Congressional and Presidential Studies, School of Public Affairs, American University, where he teaches about climate change and American environmental politics. He also has been a Visiting Scholar at the Churches' Center for Theology and Public Policy, Wesley Theological Seminary, where he taught about religious responses to global warming and security threats.